

We are pleased to announce that Joe Coe has joined the airport team as the Chief Diversity Officer in the Diversity Contracts/Procurement Division.

Joe is well known in the local community through his leadership on local boards, councils, and foundations. He has vast industry experience and knowledge in creating key messages to successfully drive and implement diversity and inclusion strategies. His focus will be to:

- Build and maintain collaborative relationships with all stakeholders including businesses owned by women, persons of color, veterans and the LGBTQ+ community.
- Collaborate with mission-focused resource partners, chambers of commerce and strategic business development organizations.
- Participate in events and workshops to attract, develop, and retain a diverse pool of Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE) and Small Business Enterprises (SBE) in construction and procurement industries, and Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (ACDBE) for concession opportunities.
- Ensure that the ACDBE, DBE and SBE certification processes and programs remain compliant with federal regulations.

Please feel free to contact Joe at 702-261-5982, or via email at joec@lasairport.com.
